Before the Megillah is read, the reader recites the following three blessings and all those listening answer Amen as indicated:

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us concerning the reading of the Megillah. (Amen)

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who performed miracles for our forefathers in those days, at this time. (Amen)

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has granted us life, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this occasion. (Amen)
1 - Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus—this is Ahasuerus who reigned, from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces.

2 - That in those days, when King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the capital,

3 - In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the army of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him;

4 - When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty, many days, a hundred and eighty days.

5 - And when these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the capital, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king’s palace;
6 - There were hangings of white, fine cotton, and blue, bordered with cords of fine linen and purple, upon silver rods and pillars of marble; the couches were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of green, and white, and shell, and onyx marble.

7 - And they gave them drink in vessels of gold—the vessels being diverse one from another—and royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king.

8 - And the drinking was according to the law; none compelled; for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man’s pleasure.

9 - Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 - On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizzetha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 - To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to look on.

12 - But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king’s commandment by the chamberlains; and the king was very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 - Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times—for so was the king’s manner toward all that knew law and judgment;
14 - And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king’s face, and sat the first in the kingdom:

15 - ’What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, as she has not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?’

16 - And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: ‘Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples, that are in all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus.

17 - For this deed of the queen will go abroad to all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it will be said: The King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 - And this day will the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the deed of the queen say the like to all the king’s princes. So there will arise much contempt and wrath.

19 - If it please the king, let there go forth a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus, and that the king give her royal estate to another, better than she.

20 - And when the king’s decree which he shall make published throughout all his kingdom, great though it be, all the wives will give to their husband’s honor, both great and small.’

21 - And the word pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan;

22 - For he sent letters into all the king’s provinces, into every province according to the decree, and to every people according to their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and speak according to the language of his people.

1 - After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was assuaged, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 - Then said the king’s servants that ministered to him: ‘Let there be sought for the king young maidens fair to look on;
3 - And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young maidens to Shushan the capital, to the house of the women, in to the custody of Hegai the king’s chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their ointments be given them;

4 - And let the maiden that pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.’ And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 - There was a Jewish man in Shushan the capital, whose name was Mordechai the son of Yair, the son of Shim’ei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,

6 - Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives that had been carried away with Yechoniah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 - And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle’s daughter; for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was of beautiful form and fair to look on; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordechai took her for his own daughter.

8 - So it came to pass, when the king’s commandment and his decree was published, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the capital, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king’s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
9 - And the maiden pleased him, and she received kindness of him; and he speedily gave her the ointments, with her portions, and the seven maidens, who were appropriate to be given her out of the king’s house; and he advanced her and her maidens to the best place in the house of the women.

10 - Esther had not made known her people nor her lineage; for Mordechai had charged her that she should not tell it.

11 - And Mordechai walked every day before the court of the women’s house, to know how Esther did, and what would become of her.

12 - Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to King Ahasuerus, after that it had been done to her according to the law for the women, twelve months—for so were the days of their anointing accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other ointments of the women —

13 - When then the maiden came unto the king, whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king’s house.

14 - In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king’s chamberlain, who kept the concubines; she came to the king no more, except on the king taking delight in her, and she was called by name.
15 - Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Avihail, the uncle of Mordechai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king’s chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all that looked on her.

16 - So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tevet, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 - And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his eyes more than all the maidens; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 - Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther’s feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the bounty of the king.

19 - And when the maidens were gathered together the second time, and Mordechai sat in the king’s gate—

20 - Esther had not yet made known her people or lineage; as Mordechai had charged her; for Esther followed the commands of Mordechai, like as when she was brought up by him—

21 - In those days, while Mordechai sat in the king’s gate, two of the king’s chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those that kept the gate, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.
22 - And the thing became known to Mordechai, who told it to Esther the queen; and Esther told the king in Mordechai’s name.

23 - And when inquiries were made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

1 - After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 - And all the king’s servants, that were in the king’s gate, bowed down, and prostrated themselves before Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordechai would not bow down, nor prostrate himself before him.
3 - Then the king’s servants, that were in the king’s gate, said to Mordechai: ‘Why do you transgress against the king’s commandment?’

4 - Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily unto him, and he did not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordechai’s words would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 - And when Haman saw that Mordechai would not bow down, nor prostrate himself before him, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 - But it seemed contemptible in his eyes to lay hands on Mordechai alone; for they had made known to him the people of Mordechai; wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, the people of Mordechai.

7 - In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast a pur, that is - the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

8 - And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus: ‘There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the all the peoples in the provinces of your kingdom; and their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither do they keep the king’s laws; therefore, it does not profit the king to suffer them.

9 - If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those that have the charge of the king’s business, to bring it into the king’s treasuries.’

10 - And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, enemy of the Jews.

11 - And the king said unto Haman: ‘The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you.’

12 - Then were the king’s scribes called in the first month, on the thirteenth day thereof, and there was written, according to all that Haman commanded, unto the king’s satraps, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the princes of every people; to every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with the king’s ring.

13 - And letters were sent by posts into all the king’s provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoils as plunder.

14 - The copy of the writing, to be given out for a decree in every province, was to be published to all peoples, that they should be ready against that day.

15 - The posts went forth in haste by the king’s commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the capital; and the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

1 - When Mordechai knew all that was done, Mordechai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 - And he came even before the king’s gate; for none might enter within the king’s gate clothed in sackcloth.

3 - And in every province, wherever the king’s commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many dressed in sackcloth and ashes.

4 - And Esther’s maidens and her chamberlains came and told it her; and the queen was exceedingly pained; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordechai; and to take his sackcloth from off him; but he accepted it not.

5 - Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king’s chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and charged him to go to Mordechai, to know what this was, and why it was.

6 - So Hatach went forth to Mordechai unto the city square, which was before the king’s gate.

7 - And Mordechai told him of all that had happened unto him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king’s treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 - Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her; and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him, for her people.

9 - And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordechai.

10 - Then Esther spoke unto Hatach, and gave him a message unto Mordechai:

11 - ’All the king’s servants, and the people of the king’s provinces know, that anyone whether man or woman, who comes to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live; but I have not been called to come to the king these thirty days.’
12 - And they told to Mordechai Esther’s words.

13 - Then Mordechai bade them to return answer unto Esther: ‘Do not think that you shall escape in the king’s house, more than all the Jews.

14 - For if you hold your peace at this time, then relief and deliverance will arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish; and who knows whether you have not come to the royal estate for this time?’

15 - Then Esther bade them return to answer to Mordechai:

16 - ’Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and do not eat or drink three days, night or day; I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so will I go to the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.’

17 - So Mordechai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.
1 - Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king’s house, opposite the king’s house; and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, opposite the entrance of the house.

2 - And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his eyes; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 - Then said the king unto her: ‘What is your will, queen Esther? for whatever your request, even to the half of the kingdom, it shall be given to you.’

4 - And Esther said: ‘If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.’
5 - Then the king said: ‘Let Haman make haste, that it may be done as Esther asked.’ So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 - And the king said to Esther at the wine banquet: ‘What is your petition, it shall be granted to you; and what is your request, even to the half of the kingdom, it shall be done.’

7 - Then answered Esther, and said: ‘My petition and my request is—

8 - if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition, and my request—let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king bade.’

9 - Then went out Haman that day joyful and glad of heart; but when Haman saw Mordechai in the king’s gate, that he did not stand up, or moved for him, Haman was filled with wrath against Mordechai.

10 - Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife.

11 - And Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and everything as to how the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 - Haman said moreover: ‘Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared aside from myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king.

13 - Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordechai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.’

14 - Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him: ‘Let gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and in the morning you will speak to the king that Mordechai may be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet.’ And this pleased Haman; and he had the gallows made.

1 - On that night the king could not sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of chronicles, and they were read before the king.

2 - And it was found written, that Mordechai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s chamberlains, of those that kept the gate, who had sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.
3 - And the king said: ‘What honor and reward has been done to Mordechai for this?’ Then said the king’s servants that ministered to him: ‘There was nothing done for him.’

4 - And the king said: ‘Who is in the court?’—Now Haman was come into the outer court of the king’s house, to speak to the king to hang Mordechai on the gallows that he’d had prepared for him.—

5 - And the king’s servants said unto him: ‘Haman stands in the court.’ And the king said: ‘Let him come in.’

6 - So Haman came in. And the king said unto him: ‘What shall be done to the man whom the king desires to honor?’—Now Haman said in his heart: ‘Whom would the king desire to honor besides myself?’—

7 - And Haman said unto the king: ‘For the man whom the king desires to honor,

8 - let royal apparel be brought which the king used to wear, and the horse that the king rode upon, and on whose head a royal crown is set;

9 - and let the apparel and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king’s most noble princes, that they may dress the man whom the king desires to honor, and lead him to ride on horseback through the streets of the city, and proclaim before him: So shall it be done to the man whom the king desires to honor.’

10 - Then the king said to Haman: ‘Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as you have said, and do so to Mordechai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate; let nothing fail of all that you have spoken.’

11 - Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordechai, and led him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him:
‘Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king desires to honor.’

12 - And Mordechai returned to the king’s gate. But Haman hastened to his house, mourning and having his head covered.

13 - And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him.
Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife to him:
‘If Mordechai, before whom you have begun to fall, be of Jewish lineage, you shall not prevail against him, but shall surely fall before him.’

14 - While they were yet talking with him, came the king’s chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
1 - So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 - And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine: ‘Whatever your petition, queen Esther, it shall be granted; and whatever you request, even to the half of the kingdom, it shall be performed.’

3 - Then Esther the queen answered and said: ‘If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request;

4 - for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my peace, for the adversary has no thought to the king’s loss.’
5 - Then spoke the king Ahasuerus and said unto Esther the queen: ‘Who is he, and where is he, that dares presume in his heart to do so?’

6 - And Esther said: ‘An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman.’ Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.

7 - And the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman remained to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 - Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king: ‘Will you even force the queen before me in the house?’ As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

9 - Then said Harbonah, one of the chamberlains that were before the king: ‘Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordechai, who spoke good for the king, stands in the house of Haman.’ And the king said: ‘Hang him on it.’

10 - So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordechai. Then was the king’s wrath assuaged.
1 - On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews’ enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordechai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

2 - And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordechai. And Esther set Mordechai over the house of Haman.

3 - And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 - Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5 - And she said: ‘If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his eyes, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing to him, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews that are in all the king’s provinces;

6 - for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?’

7 - Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordechai the Jew: ‘Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 - Write also concerning the Jews, as it suits you, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s ring; for the writing which is written in the king’s name, and sealed with the king’s ring, may no man reverse.’

9 - Then were the king’s scribes called at that time, in the third month, which is the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordechai commanded concerning the Jews, even to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 - And they wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king’s ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, riding on swift steeds that were used in the king’s service, bred of the stud;
11 - that the king had granted the Jews that were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, and to slay, and to cause to perish, all the forces of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to take the spoils of them,

12 - upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 - The copy of the writing, to be given out for a decree in every province, was to be published unto all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 - So the posts that rode upon swift steeds that were used in the king’s service went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king’s commandment; and the decree was given out in Shushan the capital.

15 - And Mordechai went forth from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a rob of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad.

16 - The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honor.

17 - And in every province, and in every city, wherever the king’s commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. And many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen upon them.

1 - Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king’s commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have rule over them; whereas it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;

2 - The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them was fallen upon all the peoples.

3 - And all the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and they that did the king’s business, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordechai was fallen upon them.

4 - For Mordechai was great in the king’s house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordechai waxed greater and greater.

5 - And the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would unto them that hated them.

6 - And in Shushan the capital the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 - And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizatha,

10 - The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews’ enemy, slew they; but on the spoil they laid not their hand.

11 - On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the capital was brought before the king.

12 - And the king said unto Esther the queen: ‘The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the capital, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces! Now whatever your petition, it shall be granted to you; and whatever your request further, it shall be done.’

13 - Then said Esther: ‘If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews that are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according unto this day’s decree, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.’

14 - And the king commanded it so to be done; and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman’s ten sons.

15 - And the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men in Shushan; but on the spoil they laid not their hand.

16 - And the other Jews that were in the king’s provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of them that hated them seventy and five thousand—but on the spoil they laid not their hand—

17 - On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 - But the Jews that were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 - Therefore do the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 - And Mordechai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 - To enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 - The days wherein the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 - And the Jews took upon them to do as they had begun, and as Mordechai had written unto them;

24 - Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast (Pur) a lot, that is, the lot, to discomfit them, and to destroy them;

25 - But when she came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 - Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur (lot). Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come unto them,

27 - The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing, and according to the appointed time, every year;

28 - And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 - Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Avihail, and Mordechai the Jew, wrote down all the acts of power, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 - And he sent letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 - To confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordechai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fasts and their cry.

32 - And the commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.
1 - And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 - And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordechai, how the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 - For Mordechai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren; seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his seed.

After the reading, the reader recites the following only if a minyan is present, and those listening answer Amen as indicated:
Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who wages our battles, defends our rights, avenges the wrong done to us, punishes our oppressors in behalf, and brings retribution upon all our mortal enemies.

Blessed are You Lord, who exacts payment in behalf of His people Israel from all their oppressors; God who delivers. (Amen)

The rose of Jacob thrilled with joy and exulted when they beheld Mordechai garbed in royal blue. You have always been their salvation, their hope in every generation, to make known that all who place their hope in You shall not be put to shame, nor shall all those who trust in You be disgraced forever.

Cursed be Haman who sought to destroy me; blessed be Mordechai the Jew. Cursed be Zeresh the wife of [Haman] who terrified me; blessed be Esther, who [interceded] on my behalf. Cursed be all the wicked; blessed be all the righteous; and may Charvonah also be remembered favorably.
